

Higher Taxes In 2013 Can't Help The Government (But Can Hurt You!)

by Adam Richardson

It's mid-April, and the taxpocalypse is upon us! Time to "pay your fair share" – and for many of you this year that means paying more.

But what does it really matter? Does the government actually see an increase in "revenue" with an increase in tax ~~confiscation~~ collection?

This short video has the answer.
